

Summary of Division of Environmental Chemistry Awards

Name of Award	Eligibility	Frequency	Judges	Criteria	When Awarded	Award	Average Number per Year
Administered by Division of Environmental Chemistry
Certificate of Merit	1. ACS Member 2. First Presentation before Division	Each ACS National Meeting	Awards Chairman + ad hoc members	Printed judging sheets - equal parts on content and presentation	At Division dinner of National Meeting following presentation	Certificate Dinner at next ACS National Meeting	Variable, usually 4 - 8
Distinguished Service	1. Continuous membership in the Division for 10 years 2. Any or all of the five listed in Division Operations Handbook (DOH) Section O	Maximum of once per year	Distinguished Service Awards committee (DOH-O.10)	1. Continuous membership in the Division for 10 years 2. Any or all of the five listed in Division Operations Handbook (DOH) Section O	At Division dinner of Fall ACS National ACS Meeting in any year.	Certificate Honorary Membership in Division (waiver of dues with continued ACS membership)	Varies, last award made in 1992
Fraser Johnstone	1. ACS Member 2. Outstanding paper on air pollution	Per application, with the paper presented at an ACS National Meeting	An "appropriate" committee for acceptance for presentation & judging by 3 anonymous Division members knowledgeable in the field selected by the Executive Committee	Ten criteria covering content and presentation, as in DOH, Section N	At Division dinner of National Meeting following presentation	Scroll Up to $500 to help defray travel expenses	One award - 1966
Edward Bartow	1. ACS Member 2. Paper on some phase of water, waste, sanitation or sewage chemistry	Per application, with the paper presented at an ACS National Meeting	An "appropriate" committee for acceptance for presentation & judging by 3 anonymous Division members knowledgeable in the field selected by the Executive Committee	Ten criteria covering content and presentation, as in DOH, Section N	At Division dinner of National Meeting following presentation	Scroll Up to $500 to help defray travel expenses	Six awards - 1959, 193, 1964, 1966, 1967, and 1969

Name of Award	Eligibility	Frequency	Judges	Criteria	When Awarded	Award	Average Number per Year
Graduate Student	Graduate students, enrolled full-time at due date of application in a US degree granting institution emphasizing environmental chemistry who will have completed 1 year of graduate study by Jan. 15 of the year of the award	Annually	Committee appointed by Division Chairman	25% Student Record 25% Relevance of research 50% Likelihood of contributing professionally to environmental chemistry	February	One year membership in the Division One year subscription to EX&T	Up to 25
Graduate Student Search Papers	Graduate students, enrolled full-time at due date of application in a US degree granting institution emphasizing environmental chemistry. Paper relevant to environmental chemistry with student as major author	Annually	Committee assembled by chairman	Not explicitly stated in DOH Judged as if being submitted for publication with ranking system used to determine awardees	At Spring ACS National meeting: Special session, and Division dinner	Certificate Guest at Division's Dinner $500 One year membership in Division Letter of Commendation to Major Advisor	Up to five
Co-Author	Co-author of paper which received a Certificate of Merit, Edward Bartow, or Fraser Johnstone Awards	With Author's award	N/A	N/A	At Division dinner of National Meeting following presentation	Co-Author Certificate	N/A
Administered by ACS
ACS Award for Creative Advances in Environmental Science and Technology sponsored by Air Products and Chemicals, Inc.	By nomination containing evaluation of nominee's accomplishments and identification of specific work to be recognized	Annually	Five members, experts in the field, appointed for three-year terms by the ACS President-Elect	Creativity in R&D or methods of analysis to provide a scientific basis for informed environmental control decisions, or to provide practical technologies which will reduce health risk factors	Spring ACS National Meetings	Certificate $3,000 $1,000 allowance for expenses incidental to conferral of award	One